About Joe Bertagna...

Joe Bertagna is starting his 37th year as a coach of goaltenders. A native of Arlington, MA, Joe played goal at Harvard University and professionally in the United States and Europe. His summer goaltending schools have attracted thousands since 1974. An author of numerous instructional articles and DVDs, Joe spent six seasons as goaltending coach for the Boston Bruins and was also goaltending coach for the 1994 U.S. Olympic Team. A member of the USA Hockey Board of Directors, Joe serves college hockey as the Commissioner of the Hockey East Association and as Executive Director of the American Hockey Coaches Association. Joe will use a deep and experienced staff to assist him this winter.

Note: The PHD Center is REAL ICE (not synthetic) and allows for personalized goalie training in a controlled setting.

Additional Instruction Opportunities

Joe is available for "private" (one goalie) or "semi-private" (two-goalie) instruction, pending ice availability. Joe is also available to observe goalies in their regular season games and to write up a report on his observations. Finally, Joe will contract with youth hockey organizations to direct clinics on town ice for all of the goalies in a given program. Contact Joe via jbertagna@comcast.net.

Two-Day Pre-Season High School Camp at the Burlington Ice Palace (Session HS)

Wednesday, November 25: 1:30-3:30 p.m. and Friday, November 27: 2:00-4:00 p.m. Cost: $150

To enroll, provide information below, indicate desired session and submit full payment (check only) to "Bertagna Goaltending," c/o P.O. Box 495 in Arlington, MA 02476. Questions? Contact Joe via jbertagna@comcast.net.
